

Attendance and Absence Policy

Governing Board with Responsibility	Full Governing Board
Reviewed/Revised	Spring 2022
Date of Next Review	Spring 2024
Agreed by Governors	16.03.2022
Additional Notes	This policy will be reviewed every 2 years or before if requested by the Headteacher or the governing board.

RATIONALE

Regular attendance and punctuality are essential components of a child's education. Poor attendance can seriously affect each child's attainment in school, relationships with other children and their ability to form lasting friendships, confidence to attempt new work and to learn alongside others. In order to make the most of the learning opportunities provided within school, children need to have the continuity of provision which consistent attendance allows.

This policy has been written to adhere to the relevant Children's Acts, Education Acts, Regulations and Guidance from the Department for Education in addition to guidance from Brent Local Authority.

AIMS

- To ensure high levels of attendance and punctuality
- To achieve a minimum of 95% attendance for all children, apart from those with serious health issues
- To ensure that routines are in place for monitoring attendance and for early identification of any difficulties
- To respect and appreciate that variation in lifestyle and religious background may place different demands upon children and their families
- For all school staff to promote a positive and welcoming atmosphere in which pupils feel safe, secure and valued
- For all school staff to take an active role in promoting the importance of good attendance and encourage in pupils a sense of their own responsibility

RESPONSIBILITIES

The following includes information on the responsibilities that individuals in the school community have to ensure that attendance and punctuality meets the aims of this policy.

Parents and Carers

Parents and carers are responsible for:

- Impressing upon their children the importance of attending school regularly

- Working in partnership with the school to resolve issues which may lead to poor attendance
- Ensuring they are aware of the attendance policy of the school
- Notifying the school regarding absence, preferably on the first day of absence. The explanation of this absence should be confirmed in writing when the child returns
- Where possible arranging dental and medical appointments outside school hours
- Ensuring that holidays are not taken during term time

What this means in practical terms is:

- Bringing their children to school every day and on time (between 8.30am and 8.50am).
- Children need to be lined up on the playground when the bell is rung at 8.50am
- Children who arrive at school after the registers are open (at 9.00am) will be deemed to be late as follows:
 - If they arrive between 9.00am and 9.15am, they will be deemed to be late while the register is still 'open'. This will be recorded as an authorised late
 - If they arrive after 9.15am when the register is 'closed', this will be recorded as an unauthorised absence
- Notifying the school office or the Welfare Officer of absences by 9.15am on the first and all subsequent mornings of absence
- Following up absences with a letter if requested by the school, and providing medical certificates where required
- Parents/carers need to contact class teacher to discuss concerns about children not wanting to be in school (eg. because of bullying, special educational needs, worries about school work or any other reasons) so that the class teacher and other staff can work with the pupil and parents to address this.

Requests for Absence

- Parents/carers need to be aware that requests for leave of absence from school will be authorised in exceptional circumstances only. Exceptional circumstances are 'once in a lifetime experiences' such as celebrating the 100th birthday of a great grandmother or great grandfather, the wedding of the pupil's parents.
- Absences due to medical appointments, school entrance exams and music exams will be authorised
- Parents/carers need to be aware that time off for religious observance will be granted on an authorised basis for the day(s) of the religious ceremony only. Time taken outside of the religious day(s), whether in the UK or abroad, will be unauthorised.
- All other absences will be treated as unauthorised.
- The Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher are responsible for authorising or not authorising Absence Request forms

Please refer to Appendix A for the Authorised Absence Request form. This outlines the legal requirements for parents/carers to ensure that their children attend school.

If leave of absence is taken without the request having been agreed beforehand, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised. Authorised Absence Request forms must be completed and authorised before the leave is taken.

In compliance with the Education Act 436A (Chapter 2 Part 6) the school will, after making appropriate checks, report all Children Missing from Education to the Local Authority Education Welfare Service (EWS), who has a duty to investigate the whereabouts of such children and negotiate their prompt return to suitable education.

STAFF RESPONSIBILITIES

All members of school staff have a responsibility for identifying trends in attendance and punctuality. The following includes a more specific list of the kinds of responsibilities which individuals might have.

The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for:

- Overall preparation and implementation of the attendance and punctuality policy
- Overall monitoring of school attendance
- Promotion of attendance at all times
- Informing the Governing Board of attendance data and how the school is addressing issues
- Authorising or not authorising all absence requests

The Deputy Head

- Acting as a point of contact for teaching and non-teaching staff where concerns need to be raised or advice sought
- Liaising with other professionals to determine potential sources of difficulties and reasons for absence
- Reporting frequently to the Headteacher about attendance or punctuality concerns
- Generating warning letters to parents
- Making referrals to Local Authority Education Welfare Service (EWS) after consultation with the Headteacher
- Ensuring that the attendance and punctuality policy is followed and that the actions from EWS meetings are carried out
- Liaising and discussing with parents issues relating to attendance
- Making contact with the EWS when absence and/ or punctuality needs arise
- In consultation with the Headteacher, notifying the EWS of the need for a Fixed Penalty Notice and providing support with prosecution
- Feedback and discussions with the class teachers over individual cases
- Ensuring procedures for class and individual rewards for good attendance are followed
- Authorising or not authorising all absence requests

The Welfare Officer

The Welfare Officer is responsible for:

- Following up absences with immediate requests (ie. on the first day) for explanations about any unexplained absences. (This will include subsequent daily phone calls home when the pupils are absent due to sickness and the parents have not contacted the school)
- Following up specific requests from the Headteacher and Deputy Head for information about individuals
- Contacting families where concerns are raised about absence
- Monitoring individual attendance on a daily basis where concerns have been raised including information about attendance trends and class percentages when requested
- Ensuring registers are accurate
- Collating attendance percentages
- Processing and following up leave of absence forms in conjunction with the office

- Monitoring trends in authorised and unauthorised absence particularly for Monday and Friday absences/lateness
- Reporting weekly to the Deputy Head on attendance issues

Class teacher

Class teachers are responsible for:

- Keeping an overview of class and individual attendance and punctuality looking particularly for either poor overall attendance, anomalies in patterns of attendance and/or unusual explanations for attendance offered by children and their parents/guardians
- Informing the Welfare Officer or/and the Deputy Head where there are concerns and acting upon them
- Providing background information to support referrals
- Monitoring once actions have been taken to correct attendance and/ or punctuality concerns
- Emphasising with their class the importance of good attendance and promptness
- Following up absences with immediate requests for explanation (but not necessarily taking this further – responsibility of office staff)
- Discussing attendance and punctuality issues at consultation evenings
- Setting an exemplary example by being punctual and having good attendance themselves

ATTENDANCE REGISTERS

- Under the Education (Pupil Registration – amendments) Regulations 1997 we are required to keep an attendance register on which, at the beginning of each morning and at some time during the afternoon session pupils are marked present or absent.
- Attendance registers are legal documents which may be required as evidence in court cases.
- Registers must record whether each pupil is present, absent or engaged in an approved educational activity. In the case of a pupil of compulsory school age who is absent the register must also indicate whether the absence has been authorised by the school.
- When calling the register the appropriate mark and/symbol should be placed against each pupil's name – gaps should not be left so that entries can be made later. In marking registers, staff need to follow the set of symbols contained in guidance found in registers. A copy of the symbols used can be found in Appendix B.
- Entries in registers should be made electronically on the SIMS system by class teachers. If it is not possible to access SIMS, a paper register should be requested from the school office.
- A pupil's name may not be deleted from the attendance register unless it has also been deleted from the admissions register.

Grounds for deleting a pupil from the school admission register

- In the case of a pupil who has been continuously absent from school for a period of not less than four school weeks and both the school and the EWS have failed, after reasonable enquiry, to locate the pupil
- Notification has been given that the child is receiving education otherwise than at school
- If the child has been registered at another school.

Guidance for staff

- Registers must be completed by 9.05am. Authorised lateness is between 9:05 and 9:15am.
- The cut off point for lateness is 9.15am. Lateness after this time is an unauthorised absence.
- Please use guide symbols, included in register for marking (Appendix B)
- An adult needs to authorise absence; please do not accept child's word.

- Every effort should be made to obtain a note from the parent if there has not been a phone message.
- Parents are expected to contact the school on the first day of absence and all subsequent days in the case of sickness
- Phone calls from the office for those families who have not contacted the school will be made on the first day of absence and all subsequent days in the case of sickness
- Please check reasons for absence. The Welfare Officer and the Deputy Head monitor absence and punctuality on a weekly basis so be prepared to discuss regular absences with them.
- The decision about authorising/ unauthorising all absence requests, of any duration, must be made by the Headteacher or Deputy Headteacher.

FOLLOWING UP ATTENDANCE ISSUES – PROCEDURES

Meetings with the Educational Welfare Service (EWS)

When attendance and/ or punctuality issues have been identified by staff at Princess Frederica Primary school, the EWS at Brent will be contacted. Prior to any meeting the following information is collected:

- o Attendance record for any child with less than 90% attendance
- o Attendance record for any child whose absence shows particular trends
- o Attendance record for any child who has been frequently arriving at school late
- o Class percentage totals

Information is shared about previous cases and decisions taken about the next stages of intervention where this is appropriate. Decisions taken are recorded on the attendance monitoring sheet. Following the meeting with the EWS, class teachers are notified of the outcome and agreed actions are discussed with the Deputy Head and followed up as appropriate.

School procedures in cases of intervention

Although a range of strategies and actions will be taken on an informal basis, a formal procedure is applied when an absence remains unexplained:

- First day of absence phone call made by office staff
- Discussion on an informal level with the child/parent and reminder about the importance of regular attendance and punctuality
- If attendance remains erratic, letters are sent from school drawing attention to the child's attendance
- Parents/Carers are invited to the school offering them the opportunity to meet with the Welfare Officer or Deputy Head or Headteacher to discuss the pattern of attendance
- If the Parents/Carers do not attend the meeting, the next stage is for an approach to be made to the EWS
- Further formal approaches might then be made according to the LA's attendance policy

At all times, we believe that a positive approach which aims for cooperation is essential if improvements in attendance are to be sustained.

The Headteacher will report to the Governing Board in the 'Headteachers Report' the attendance percentage for the school and on any specific trends and/or difficulties with individual (but unnamed) families.

REVIEW

This policy is due for review every two years. Its success should be judged by answers to the following questions:

- Have we reached our attendance target of 96%?
- Is everyone aware of the procedures to be followed?
- Do class teachers and children have high expectations of themselves and others?
- Are forms and records regularly completed?

Children and Families Department Family Holidays during term time. Guidance for parents/carers

By law, every child of compulsory school age must get a proper fulltime education. It is your legal duty to ensure that your child attends school regularly, arrives on time and keeps to the school rules.

1. Do not take your child on holiday when he/she should be at school
2. Leave of absence from school will be authorised in exceptional circumstances only. Exceptional circumstances are 'once in a lifetime experiences' such as celebrating the 100th birthday of a great grandmother or great grandfather, the wedding of the pupil's parents.
3. Taking your child on holiday in term time without the school's permission may result in legal action being taken against you by the Education Welfare Service.

I/we understand that only in exceptional circumstance may the amount of leave granted exceed more than two weeks in any year (Regulation 12 of the Education – Schools and further Education – Regulations 1981).

I/we also understand that if a pupil fails to return to school within 10 school days of the expiry of the agreed period of absence and the failure is not due to sickness or any other unavoidable cause his/her name shall be deleted from the admission register (Regulation 9 of the Education – Pupil Registration – Regulation 1995). *(Documented evidence required)
