

Princess Fred's Matters

*"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul; and with all your mind and strength."
Mark 12:30*

Friday 24th February '17

Dear Parents and Carers,

Book Week has started!

Excitement and curiosity has gripped Princess Frederica as we all enter into an exciting time in the school calendar. Staff at school and numerous

Thank you to the PSA

Thank you to the PSA for organising the incredible range and calibre of authors who we have visiting and working with us over Book Week. They have certainly gone the extra mile!

A special thank you especially to Amanda Constance, Emma Lowe, Pendle Harte and Belinda Rasmussen for their great efforts in coordinating the week.

members of the PSA have been busy ensuring that this time is one of the best ever at the school. Some children have already experienced the energy and passion that comes with being an author. On Thursday, when the festivities began, Adisa the Verbaliser joined us for the day and did some great work with Year 5 as well as an assembly for Years 4, 5 and 6. His passion for poetry was clear to all. What really stood out was Adisa's ability to transfer thoughts and feelings about memories into poetry and how to improve upon drafts. There will be published poems shared on the school website soon that were inspired by work done with Adisa.

Then, today, we were joined by James Campbell who worked with Year 3 and led an assembly for both Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2. The children laughed to the point it was almost crying as James explored different ways to think of ideas for writing. He also shared a few pages of his first book and talked about where he gained inspiration from. James was also full of praise for his fantastic audience!

Authors next week

Next week, we will have two more authors joining us: Andy Griffiths (Monday) and Cressida Cowell (Wednesday). We look forward to welcoming them to Princess Frederica.

World Book Day

Next Thursday (2nd March) will be World Book Day. All children are invited and encouraged to dress up as a character from a book. All the staff, who are busy preparing their own outfits, can't wait to see all the children's creations for the day. There will be prizes for outfits which will be given out in our school assembly on the day.

The World Book Day Parade

There will also be an opportunity for all parents to see the different outfits during a parade which will start first thing after drop-off in the main playground and will run for approximately 20 minutes. Foundation stage will run a similar parade in the EYFS playground.

Share a book with your child's class on World Book Day

There is also an opportunity for our parents to share one of their favourite picture books with a whole class (between 3pm and 3:30pm on World Book Day). If you would like to volunteer to come in and read a short picture book to your child's class then please contact your child's class teacher and they will organise a time with you directly. This is a lovely opportunity for the children to sit together as a class and listen to a new story-teller sharing a book they love.

Love thy Neighbour

Just before half-term, and for the third time this year, The Headship Team had the pleasure of welcoming children for an afternoon tea as reward for their consistent use of a particular (or combination of) school value over the past half-term. Children enjoyed tea, squash, biscuits and flapjacks.
