

Facts

- Rosh Hashanah is a special festival celebrated by Jews every year and it means 'the start of the New Year'.
- Jews sound a shofar to signal the New Year and wake everybody up into action and good choices for the New Year.
- Every year, many Jewish families celebrate Sukkot by building and living in a sukkah for a week.
- Hanukkah is the Jewish festival of lights.

Key Vocabulary

- Judaism
- Hanukkah
- Festival
- Rosh Hashanah
- Shanah Tovah
- Sukkot
- Menorah
- Shofar

Pictures

Challah Bread

Menorah

Shofar